National Portrait Gallery, St Martin's Place, WC2H 0HE, 020 7306 0055, npg.org.uk.

3 | CITY OF LONDON FESTIVAL

This annual event offers music, dance, debate, comedy and theatre, all in the Square Mile. Highlights include the London Symphony Orchestra's return to St Paul's Cathedral for Haydn's The Creation.

Until 10 July. Visit colf.org.

SCANDINAVIAN CHIC

With its collection of timeless designs by Lidhults, Sola Kitchen's Fulham showroom reflects founder Sofia Bune Strandh's Swedish roots. Now, the company has also introduced a modern note with the minimalist look and strong lines of Danish brand Multiform, whose Form 6 kitchen is shown here. Sola Kitchens, 121 Munster Road, SW6 6DH, 020 3004 0898, solakitchens.com.

CITY STYLE

Contemporary furnishings by young British designers and international talent is the focus of Urban Living Interiors' design studio and showroom in Fitzrovia's creative hub. Lighting and furniture from leading Italian house Casamilano as well as bespoke pieces by Brazilian artist Lisa Pappo and textiles by Anna Gravelle (below) take centre stage, while a café and courtyard make this a convivial shopping experience. Urban Living Interiors, 85 Great Portland Street, W1W 7LT, 020 7637 9427, urbanlivinginteriors.co.uk.

NEW ARRIVAL Italian furniture specialist Luxury Living has opened its first London store.

Combining the best of Anglo-Italian design, the three-storey space showcases furniture, accessories, textiles and tableware from Bentley Home, Trussardi Casa and own-brand Heritage Collection, curated by founder Alberto Vignatelli. Luxury Living, 20/22 Brompton Road, SW1X 7QN, 020 7225 2534, luxurylivinggroup.com.
